Kandie Smith

Four years ago, the voters in District 1 chose political newcomer Kandie Smith to represent them on city council. She entered office with broad support across much of the city, and many believed she would be an independent yet reasonable addition to this important body. We feel that her record has proven otherwise. Once again, voters in District 1 have a political newcomer on the ballot, Pastor Clinton Anderson, Jr. His responses to our candidate questionnaire, his good reputation in the community, and the work he does as a religious leader in our area give us confidence in recommending Clinton Anderson, Jr. as the better choice for District 1 voters.
